

SUPERSONIC

We did it, After we all travelled to Boston we came back inspired to - finally jump on the juicy band wagon. Funny thing when we first saw one we gasped, And asked if the keg wasmokay... Then we realised this is the juice! The biggest issue with these beers is that they have to be drank fast! Drink immediately. The freshness is what it's all about. Unless you are working at a brewery you can see what a hoppy IPA tastes like straight out of the fermentation tank.

Don't buy this beer unless you plan to drink it very soon! We canned it to help preserve it's hoppy quality better...
